WCP Solutions Releases 2026 Industrial Product Catalog

Pacific Northwest wholesale distributor WCP Solutions announces the release of its 2026 Product Catalog, featuring an updated design and a revised product list.

Kent, WA - WCP Solutions announced today that the 2026 Industrial Product Catalog is now available. The catalog reflects the company's focus on providing a streamlined purchasing experience for businesses across Washington, Oregon, Northern California, Northern Nevada, Idaho, Montana, and Alaska. The new 2026 Industrial Product Catalog includes more than 3,200 products designed to meet a wide range of operational needs across paper, packaging, facility supplies, food service, and equipment solutions.

The 2026 Industrial Product Catalog helps customers quickly find essential products through a single wholesale partner. The majority of items featured are stocked and available for fast order fulfillment through WCP Solutions.

*“Our 2026 Industrial Product Catalog is more than a showcase. It reflects our commitment to making business easier for our customers. As a family-owned and women-owned company, we’re proud to deliver solutions across industrial packaging, janitorial supplies and equipment, food service, printing substrates, and beverage packaging, supported by local service and expertise. Alongside the printed catalog, our online ordering platform gives customers flexible ways to find the products and services they need.” - Jon Thompson, VP of Sales and Marketing

Complimentary printed copies of the 2026 Industrial Product Catalog are available at all 15 regional WCP locations or through local WCP Account Managers. A digital edition is also accessible on the WCP Solutions website and within the company’s digital catalog library at <https://wcp.link/catalogs>.

*“The 2026 Industrial Catalog marks the 19th edition of a journey that began in 2008. Each year, we carefully review and refine our offerings to ensure they meet the evolving needs of our customers. At WCP, we remain committed to delivering the latest product innovations and adapting to market dynamics. It’s an honor to have contributed to this catalog—first as a vendor and now as a Director.” - Tamara Ferguson, Director of Facility and Food Packaging Supplies
